LAW LIBRARY
ARIZONA ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Mr. Neeb:

We have your request for our opinion concerning certain matters dealing with examinations given by your Board.

The Statutes covering the activities of the Board of Technical Registration provide for rules and regulations to be adopted by the Board for the conduct of its meetings and the performance of its duties as imposed upon it by law.

There are no specific regulations in the statutes concerning the dates examinations are held nor is there any specific provision concerning the payment of the cost of holding the examinations other than the registration fees.

It is therefore our opinion that in the event an applicant was unable to attend an examination given on a particular day, the Board could legally hold a special examination for such applicant at a later date and such examination would be legal. It is further our opinion that, with the consent of the Board, such applicant could pay directly to the individuals employed by the Board to conduct the examination any expenses incident to the holding of the same, excepting only the registration fee which would, of course, be paid to the Secretary of the Board.

Trusting this answers your inquiry, we are

Very truly yours,
